If you have big dreams, imagination and the desire to build a new life and business, this could be the place for you! This wonderful finca has dominated the skyline in this beautiful area for more than 150 years. In the past its crops were turned into flour and made into bread in the ovens, which still remain, with their intricate brick interiors. With approx 300,000m<sup>2</sup> of land and planted...(Ask for More Details!)
